Join us for the 5th Annual Multi-Jurisdictional Family Law dinner. Members of the Family Law Committees from Baltimore City, Baltimore, Carroll, Harford, and Howard Counties are invited to hear the panel of distinguished judges speak about the recent decision in Breona C. v. Rodney D. What does this case mean for contempt as a meaningful tool to require compliance in child custody orders? AND Emergency and expedited hearings in family law cases. The differences between the two, how to request a hearing and the process and standards used in various jurisdictions to evaluate these requests. "It's an Emergency! Or is it?" Specific, anonymous, questions can be sent to Kerri@CohenLegalTeam.com to be submitted to the panel.
